PREREQUISITES: None

DESCRIPTION: This course is a survey of Western civilization from 1689 to the present, including major political, social, economic, and intellectual factors which shape the modern Western world.

TEXTBOOK(S) OR ALTERNATIVE: Donald Kagan, Steven Ozment, and Frank M. Turner, The Western Heritage: Teaching and Learning Classroom Edition, Brief 5th edition, vol. 2: since 1740 (Upper Saddle River, NJ: Pearson/Prentice Hall, 2007)

MATERIALS (specifying those to be purchased by student):

COLLATERAL READING: Will be assigned by the instructor

CLASS MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES (Attendance, tardies, testing, etc.):

Academic Dishonesty: NETC honors the State TEC Code with regard to Academic Dishonesty. Students should read pages 6 - 8 of the Student Code. Copies of the Student Code are available in Student Services. Additional copies may be posted in instructional areas.

Attendance: Realizing that attendance is essential for the successful pursuit of any academic discipline, students are expected to attend classes regularly. Any student who misses more than 20% of a class will be dropped from the class with an unsatisfactory grade of F.

Tardy Policy: It is also important that students arrive on time for class. Arriving late for a class not only disrupts a class in progress but interrupts the learning process. A tardy is defined as the arrival of a student to class after attendance has been taken. Three tardies will constitute a full absence.

Classroom Etiquette: An integral part of an education is developing a sense of integrity and responsibility not only toward ourselves but also towards others. In the classroom, as on the job or in your home, exhibiting appropriate behavior reflects on your maturity. Arriving late to class, being unprepared, inappropriate talking while class is in session, etc. reflect negatively on you and your fellow students. Please be considerate.

Statement On Written Assignments: The instructor reserves the right to refuse any paper which is messy or unreadable or appears to be copied. Incorrect grammar and spelling errors will be noted. Papers will be graded on the basis of content, organization, grammar, and neatness.

Make-up Procedures: Occasionally a student must be absent due to sickness, death in immediate family or work conflicts. If an announced test is to be missed, the student must give prior (before class) notification. No one will be guaranteed a make-up test and each case will be evaluated on its own merit.

Disabilities Statement: Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact the Vice President for Student Services to discuss needs or concerns as they pursue an academic program and participate in campus life. The Vice President for Student Services will provide guidance regarding official documentation of disabilities and/or accommodation of needs.

Student ID: It is mandatory that every student wear his or her student ID at all times. The instructor will dismiss students without ID from class. The student may get his/her ID and return to class before the midpoint of the class. If the student cannot get his/her ID and return to class by the midpoint, the instructor will record the absence.
