

Northeastern Technical College's Division of Continuing Education Presents:

Learning the Rules for the Social Security Disability Process

May 8, 2009
8:45 am – 12:15 pm
NETC Cheraw – Room 212
Cost: See Below

This program is designed to provide information about the different levels of appeal and “how to” techniques that can be applied in everyday situations.

Upon completion of this program, the participant will be able to: Provide a comprehensive overview of the Social Security Disability and Supplemental Security Income process; Learn the important five step Sequential Evaluation Process; Explain the process for evaluating claims at each level of appeal; Learn tips that can be applied to common disability situations to assist individuals in need of disability benefits; Identify the distinction between Social Security Disability and Workers’ Compensation disability benefit claims; Describe the basic framework of the Social Security Disability system and how this system has come to its current form.

The program cost for long term administrators is $50 and $40.00 for all others.
A $10 discount will be offered to those who register and pay prior to May 1, 2009.

For more information or to register for this class call NETC at 921-6922.

